

Town Recreational Shellfish Crier
April 29, 2020

1. Chipman's Cove Will Close at Sundown Tomorrow, Thursday, April 30

At sundown tomorrow, Thursday, April 30, Chipman's Cove will close for the season. It re-opens the last Sunday in October. For recreational shellfishermen, Indian Neck is always open and anything south of Indian Neck through to Lieutenant's Island is open through May 31, seven days a week.

Starting June 1, recreational shellfishermen can only shellfish on Sundays and Wednesdays and only at the Indian Neck recreational area. This is the area where we are concentrating our propagation efforts. Burton Baker Beach will open on June 1, as well.

Happy hunting and gathering!
